COMPETITION, VOTING CONDITIONS

3. The announcer will publish on the website electronic functionality that will allow the contestant to vote in each of the nine (9) contest categories.

4. Every natural person who has reached the age of majority on the day of voting shall be entitled to vote.

5. The contestant is entitled to vote from 01.04.2021, 09:00 to 30.09.2021, 23:59

6. Each contestant is obliged to vote in at least one (1) category.

7. A voting of a contestant in one (1) competition category shall constitute one (1) participation of the contestant in the competition. The total number of participations of each contestant depends on the number of votes of that contestant.

8. The winner of each category will be determined by drawing lots during the WOF Awards Gala on 07.10.2021 during the exhibition.

9. The draw shall take place in a way that the announcer:

(a) places all the participations of all the contestant in a common pool; and following

(b) draws eight winners from the common pool;

10. The winner will receive a prize, which is a voucher.

11. A contestant can become a winner at most once. If the contestant becomes the winner for the second time, the last victory will not be taken into account, and the announcer is obliged to continue the draw. With the first victory of the same contestant, the right of this contestant to further participate in the draw expires, and his other possible victories are not taken into account.

12. The announcer is obliged to publish the results of the draw on the website in the structure: name, surname and residence in the range of municipality.

13. The announcer is obliged to deliver the voucher in the electronic form to the winner within two (2) weeks of the draw.

14. If the value of the prize won by the contestant exceeds the value stipulated by a generally binding legal regulation, the contestant is obliged to fulfill his obligations specified by tax regulations in a timely and proper manner.

15. Prize cannot be claimed, exchange of prize for money or other non-monetary performance is excluded.

16. The announcer and the supplier are obliged to take the necessary actions and take appropriate measures to ensure that any person, being as of the day of the competition commencement in any relationship with the announcer or the supplier, refrains from any activity as a result of which he/she would obtain or could obtain an unjustified competitive advantage.

17. In case of discrepancy between the information given in the media or advertisements promoting the competition and the provisions of the Statute, the provisions of the Statute shall prevail.

18. The rights and obligations from the voucher may be transferred to a third party only based on a written agreement between the announcer and the contestant (winner).

19. The announcer is not responsible for:

- a) possible claims of the contestant (winner) arising from the rights related to the voucher.
- b) costs of the contestant incurred by the title of participation in the competition;

20. The announcer reserves the right to:

- a) extend, shorten, suspend or cancel the competition or change its rules at any time without giving any reasons or providing compensation;
- b) change the number and type of prizes provided to the competition.

21. The conditions of the competition are changed by publishing a new version of the Statute on the website. A contestant who does not agree with the change of the Statute has the right to withdraw from the competition within seven (7) days from the publication of the change of the Statute on the website. Withdrawal from the competition is made by a written notice of the contestant sent electronically to marketing@wofexpo.com . Withdrawal from the competition terminates all participations of the contestant who withdrew from the competition.

22. The realization of the competition is directly related to the exhibition and the draw, which will take place during the gala evening at the WOF Awards Gala. The contestant acknowledges that if circumstances of an objective nature arise based on which it can reasonably be expected to threaten the exhibition (eg epidemic, anti-epidemiological measures, restrictions on the movement of persons, restrictions on organizing mass events, etc.) the announcer is entitled to decide to change the conditions of the competition or to cancel the competition, without providing any remedy.

PRIVACY, DATA PROTECTION

23. In connection with the competition, the announcer will process the personal data of each:

a) contestant to the extent: name, surname, residence in the municipality/city, e-mail), the legal basis for data processing will be the existence of a legal relationship (contract) established between the announcer and the contestant's title to participation in the competition;

b) the winner of the competition to the extent: name, surname, residence in the range of municipality, e-mail, telephone contact), the legal basis for data processing will be the existence of a legal relationship established between the announcer and the contestant on the basis of the execution of the rights arising from the existing contractual relationship (voucher).
